

C2 Pragelato (Club Med), Italy

Downhill Ski and Snowboard Trip

Hit the slopes by day and dine on Italian Piedmont specialty meals by night! Club Med is an all inclusive resort experience; food, refreshments, entertainment, ski guides, great skiing.

The Vialattea ski area (Sestriere, Sauze D'Oulx, Sansicario, Claviere, and Montgenevre (France) is the second largest linked ski area in Europe. It is located in the Piedmont region of the Italian Alps, bordering France. The stunning alpine mountain scenery varies by area within the Vialattea. The summits range between 1350 - 2823 meters in altitude and contain over 400 km of ski runs. Both novices and experienced skiers can enjoy stunning scenery across this immense terrain.

The Club Med is set up as a set of charming, cozy, three story chalet style accommodations that are linked by cobblestone path to the Pool/Spa, and main Club dining, bar, entertainment and ski locker areas. A dedicated tram lift comes in to the Club Med site by the ski lockers, to provide ski in/out access to the slopes.

A variety of day trip excursions are available to local cities, charming towns and historical sites at extra cost.
