

C3 Aspen, Colorado

Downhill Ski and Snowboard Trip

Aspen lives up to its winter reputation! Four ski mountains make up the terrain for the world-renowned Aspen Snowmass resort. Aspen Mountain, locally referred to as Ajax, rises up directly from downtown: you can ski down the same runs that have hosted World Cup finals, ride through gladed powder stashes, or put together one quad-burning top-to-bottom after another. Aspen Mountain has 103kms of trails - 48% Intermediate, 26% Advanced, 26% Expert (no beginner runs here). Aspen Highlands boasts the legendary Highland Bowl, and serves up 135kms of trails - 23% Intermediate, 12% Advanced, 65% Expert (no beginner runs here). Snowmass offers the largest acreage and diversity by having something for everyone, offering 241kms of trails - 5% Beginner, 48% Intermediate, 17% Advanced, 30% Expert. And Buttermilk Mountain, home of the Aspen X Games, is a kids' and beginners' paradise, with 34kms of trails - 35% Beginner, 39% Intermediate, 21% Advanced, 5% Expert.

Aspen's beautiful scenery and open space also lends itself well to other types of winter recreation, such as cross-country skiing and snowshoeing. After a hard day of play enjoy Aspen's legendary après ski scene, or head out for dinner at one of their world-class restaurants.

Aspen was formed in the late 1800s as a silver mining camp, and its name originated from the abundance of aspen trees growing in the area. Today, Aspen is also known for endless dining, nightlife and shopping.

The Gant, a luxury condominium resort, is situated in a tranquil 5 acre enclave at the base of Aspen Mountain. Just 3 blocks from the Silver Queen Gondola, downtown shopping, world-class dining, nightlife and cultural attractions. Molly Gibson Lodge located in the centre of Aspen village.
